of those who would be interested to join the club should be given to Tony Oliver, 48 Denison Road as soon as possible. He would also be glad to hear of any voluntary helpers who would be willing to assist in the running of the club. More details will be given at the AGM. We should like to make it clear that the Luncheon Club is open to any retired person living within walking distance of the Brentham Club. and that the aim of the service is to provide a hot midday meal for elderly people at reasonable cost, together with an opportunity for social contacts.

Thanks are due to the Committee of the Brentham Club for their co-operation and to the Ealing Central Old People's Welfare Committee for their support in negotiations with the Borough Council.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS

Ealing Choral Society announces a series of concerts which may be of interest to many residents. The first of these takes place at Acton Town Hall on Saturday, 18th November, with a performance of Verdi's Requiem. A carol evening will be held at the Town Hall on Wednesday, 20th December. Tickets and further details may be obtained from the Choir Secretary, Betty Gray, 7 Ludlow Road.

Ealing Arts Council has made arrangements to take parties by coach to a series of concerts at the Royal Festival Hall, at an inclusive price for transport and tickets of £1.25. Details of programmes and tickets from Mr. G.M. Edwards, 14 Heathfield Rise, Ruislip, tel. 71 73733. We have a few programmes available for local distribution to those interested.

FOR THE ARCHIVES

Thanks to the intervention of your Committee, a number of original drawings of the plans of individual houses on the estate have been saved from threatened destruction. Photostat copies have been made by the Borough Planning Department and lodged for safe-keeping at the Central Library where they are available for consultation.

HOLYOAKE HOUSE

The working party (mainly Committee Members so far) which is undertaking a massive tidy-up of the lawns, hedges and overgrown shrubs would welcome additional help. If you notice any decrepit figures at work on a Sunday morning, please do not hesitate to join in. Tenants of Holyoake House have expressed their appreciation of this service by the Society.

BEST KEPT BRENTHAM GARDEN OF THE YEAR!

The Brentham Horticultural Society has just informed us of the winner of this competition - our congratulations go to Mrs. Hutton of 7 Brentham Way, who will shortly be receiving her valuable prize.
